Elias Shamba is a 53 yrs old farmer with 24 family members. He says it's hotter and drier than when he was younger. Last year he only harvested 6 bags of maize and lost two rounds of planting to drought . When WFP food assistance runs out, he collect bugs at night from the trees to supplement his meal.

SOT Niels Balzer, WFP Deputy Country Director in Zimbabwe (English)

"2019 has been an exceptionally tough year for all Zimbabweans. We see a factor, or combination of factors: economic downturn, climate change and subsequent droughts that have lead more than 8 million people into food insecurity. As WFP we are looking at ramping up our response over the next couple of weeks to reach almost double of what we had planned."
